

I ask that Chairman Powell delay the vote on media consolidation and that a real public debate on this issue be scheduled. The democratic right to express opinions must be given to the public in an issue of such great importance. I want rules in place to serve the public, rather than private media consolidation.